Into the Eagles Nest

You were briefed at eleven.
They told you you're the best.
You handle the worst jobs, the delicate jobs - the messy jobs no-one else will risk taking.
That's why you're here.
Your mission - to infiltrate and destroy the stronghold of a top enemy commander which serves as temporary barracks and armoury for the divisions under him - to rescue three fellow saboteurs held prisoner in the bowels of the fortress - to steal back as many antiquities as possible from the commander's private collection.

So you're the best.
Prove it.
